WASHINGTON, D. C., July 20.—
The strenuous efforts made by the best augar trust to influence legislation and prevent the placing of their product of the free list have furnished a general topic for gossip here. The disclosures of the methods, employed, made by Henry T. Oxnard, when on the witness stand before the senate investigating committee, were of minor consequence to those that followed when the letter files of his publicity hureau were obtained by the senators.

Days were spent in reading the letters secured by a sweeping summons to produce all the books and papers of the neet rugar publicity bureau. Letters were exchanged with people of all classes and stations in life. No detail of the silightest importance was overlooked. Efforts were made to systematically influence statesmen.

JOKER DISCOVERED IN UNDERWOOD TARIFF BILL

By C. S. ALBERT

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 20.—
The last minute discovery of a "joker" in the sugar schedule of the Underwood tariff bill, which would leave the refined product dutiable at 2 cents per pound, has created no end of merriment among the Republicans. It also caused some spoofing at the expense of the army comprisating those employed to represent the cane growers and beet raisers.

It developed after the measure had been pronounced "perfected by the majority of the finance committee ates to the language of the Underward ates to the language of the Underward in the sugars.

The eleventh-hour discovery of the "joker" was made by Senator Sheppard, of Texas, who is not a member of the finance committee. He called the attention of Democratic associates to the language of the Underward in the sugars.

Harry Donohue, for years identified majority of the finance committee wood bill and that of the Payne-capacity of chief steward, and at present on the roster of the crew of the big liner Mongolia, is reported as and effect. That clause carried this proviso:

| Deen pronounced "perfected by the attention of Democratic associates to the language of the Underwood bill and that of the Payne-Aldrich act in full force the Paynemissing from his ship.

A wireless was received in this city this morning to the effect that Chief Steward Dopohue could not be found on board that vessel, which is now steaming from San Francisco to Honolulu and is due to arrive here early
